New Mexico Hispanic Bar Association & University of New Mexico
Summer Law Camp 2019

PROGRAM OVERVIEW
The University of New Mexico College Prep Programs (UNM-CPP) along with New Mexico Hispanic Bar Association (NMHBA), Engaging Latino Communities for Education (ENLACE) and the State Bar of New Mexico Young Lawyers Division (YLD) host the Summer Law Camp. Participants get a taste of college life and develop complex skills in research, conducting a trial, critical thinking, team building, leadership and techniques of persuasion and debate during the summer residential program. At the end of the camp, participants put their new skills into action with a mock trial. Students will also witness New Mexico's legal system in action by meeting with judges and practicing attorneys and visiting the District Court. Students will reside in the UNM Residence Halls and are supervised by the College Prep Program staff. Key program components include: college experience, educational fieldtrips, law preparation curriculum, college readiness preparation curriculum, leadership and team building.

PROGRAM DATES
Camp 1: June 23-28 and Camp 2: July 7-12. 24 students will be selected for the 2019 cohort, 12 students per camp.

PROGRAM TUITION
- FREE! All costs during the student’s time in the camp are covered through donations from our partners.

PARENT/GUARDIAN AND STUDENT CONSENT

We hereby give permission for my child to attend the CPP Summer Law Camp at the University of New Mexico. We understand room and board will be provided at an on-campus dormitory and educational mentor/tutors will serve as chaperones 24-hour per day in the campus dormitories and all daily activities. My son/daughter will be required to comply with the University of New Mexico and CPP Summer Law Camp rules and regulations, as well as all Federal, State and Local laws and regulations.

We understand that my child will participate in off-campus activities. We further understand that the University of New Mexico and the CPP Summer Law Camp will provide security and will supervise all off-campus, planned activities of my child. However, all students must be in compliance with and abide by all rules, regulations and policies established by the University of New Mexico and the CPP Summer Law Camp. The University of New Mexico College Prep Programs (CPP), New Mexico Hispanic Bar Association (NMHBA), Engaging Latino Communities for Education (ENLACE) and the State Bar of New Mexico Young Lawyers Division will not be responsible for any accidents, injuries or other misfortune which may occur as a result of a participant’s violation of these rules, regulations or policies.

If the student decides to leave the Camp voluntarily before the advertised end date, the CPP Summer Law Camp will release the student only into the custody of a parent/legal guardian and will not be responsible for the student after he/she leaves the University of New Mexico campus. Students are required to attend the entire camp. Unreasonable checkouts by parents will be considered a forfeiture of the student’s participation in the camp and the student will be asked to leave for the remaining duration of the camp at the cost of the student’s parents/guardians. The CPP Summer Law Camp reserves the right to determine what constitutes a reasonable checkout. The CPP Summer Law Camp reserves the right to disenroll a student at any time due to a violation of any rule, regulation or policy established by the University of New Mexico and/or the CPP Summer Law Camp.

We understand and acknowledge that certain risks are inherent to participating in recreational activities due to one’s own actions, the actions of other participants or a combination of both. These risks may result in injury, minor or serious, as well as damage to personal property. Knowing the risks, and in consideration of being permitted to participate in the Program, we agree that any claim my child or I may have now or in the future against UNM, its officers, employees or agents, arising out of our participation in this program shall be governed by the law, of the state of New Mexico. This includes the New Mexico Tort Claims Act, Section 41-4-1 et seq., NMSA 1978, as amended. We understand that the New Mexico Tort Claims Act imposes limitations and restrictions upon civil law suits against UNM and its employees.

We give permission to the CPP Summer Law Camp to use any slides, photographs, images, video and/or statements that may be taken of my child during the course of the program for marketing and/or promotional purposes.
